

THE MARSHALL REPUBLICAN.

LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Louise Trigg, of Boonville, the guest of Mrs. John Hall, spent several days with Miss Frances Wood and shared her phæton in the Flower parade.

C D Newton spent Sunday at Slater; he returned on Monday accompanied by his wife, and children, who had been spending the week at Slater, with Rev A H Ferris and family.

A letter from Mrs. J M Patterson and Miss Maude, from Indianapolis, where they visited J W and G M Patterson last week, says they will spend the winter at Asheville, North Carolina.

In your stroll around the square, that is becoming more attractive each day, don't fail to see Rose & Buckner's handsome boy, which is the crowning feature of their handsome windows.

A wreck occurred on the C & A near Green Valley on Saturday morning caused by the freight trains running into each other, no lives lost. The east bound passenger train was delayed some 3 hours.

J P Herrington, who was one of the committee for the Sedalia Fair, attended the Marshall Fair Monday. Mr Herrington is out for RailRoad Commission with a fine prospect of being elected.

Dr W H Black and wife and daughter Ella Robbins left Saturday night for Washington City to attend the meeting of the committee on Presbyterian Alliance. Mrs Black will also visit her old home at Pittsburgh while away.

An excellent picture of Miss Susan Frances Napton appeared in Sunday's Post-Dispatch. Miss Napton will represent Marshall as Maid of Honor at the Reunion of the Missouri Division of the United Confederate Veterans, which meets this week at Clinton.

Mr J L Simpson, formerly in charge of the Electric Light Plant here, but for some months has been in charge of the plant at Mexico, is in the city and informs us that he with his family will again make Marshall their home; his family will come on sometime in the future.

Mr C E Roberts, who is the employ of the Saline Co Telephone Co., had the misfortune to fall from the top of a telephone pole on Monday and for a time it was thought he was seriously hurt. Dr G S Hardin was called in and the young man was able to go to work on Wednesday as usual.

The following are the names of the persons who represent the Parks Music House, of Louisiana, who played for the Mistletoe ball, and made such excellent music on our streets during the Fair: Mr Robt Young and wife, Messrs D and W Parks, Mr. Emmanuel, Mr. Mansfield and Mr Pettyman.

F D A Fugle, a brother of Mrs. J D and of Williamsburg, Kansas, spent several days in the city this week. Mr Fugle is a bright young man and a hard student; he is enroute to Chicago where he will attend the Chicago University where he took the scholarship over twelve hundred applicants when he entered two years ago.

Judge J. H. Hunter, of Jackson, Tenn., is a recent arrival; he is a relative of the Meriwether Bros., who have bought out the Hicks Book Store. Judge Hunter is a lawyer, and is pleasantly located, as is also Mr. Meriwether at Mrs. S M Taylor's on Verby St. Mrs Hunter and little son will arrive in the near future.

As we walk around the square, we have to keep reminding ourselves that we are in Marshall; the windows of each business house are arranged with much taste, beautiful clean new goods are placed with care, to say nothing of the decorations. Our merchants deserve much credit, and are congratulated upon the results of their labor. And people of Marshall and Saline can look back upon the Marshall Fair with pride.

Miss Mary Quigley, who has been spending some months in Texas, on account of her health, returned to Marshall on Thursday, accompanied by her uncle, Thomas Quigley, and has taken possession of the Vendome Hotel. Miss Quigley has during her stay in Marshall won quite an enviable reputation as a ladylike, having kept a clean, quiet place for the weary traveler, and we predict abundant success for Hotel Vendome in the future.
